

DAYBED & CHILL | SUN BEDS

The sun is a source of energy vital to our well-being, and the stylish day beds designed by José A. Gandia-Blasco provide the perfect open air retreat for the enjoyment of the Mediterranean sun at any time of the day or night.

Inspired by architectonic simplicity and defined by their contemporary silhouette, both DAYBED and CHILL provide a private space within the landscape, whether that be terrace or garden, for relaxation, contemplation or more social activities.

DAYBED is a collection of integral structures which incorporate a reclinable lounger bed and canopy within a single unit.

The materials for the protective cladding is available in either a water-repellent textile or aluminium slats, alternatively these materials can be combined within the same unit.

The CHILL collection consists of a reclinable bed and matching table. The angle of each of the beds can be adjusted to individual needs.

"Relax, laugh, make conversation, read, enjoy an aperitif in the open air, listen to music ...share these moments, take in the landscape. Pure Mediterranean style."

The structures for both DAYBED and CHILL are manufactured from an aluminium frame, anodized or powder coated in bronze, sand, anthracite, white or anodized colour options, the canvas awnings are made from a plastic fabric. The adjustable beds and cushions are made from weather proofed polyurethane foam, which is highly resistant to the elements with additional colour options.
